Facts and figures

The Fuchs Group

The company

The Fuchs Group is Germany's biggest spice manufacturer and the world's biggest privately-owned spice company. Founded by Dieter Fuchs in 1952, today the Fuchs Group offers the food retail, foodservice and food industry a comprehensive product range of spices, culinary trends and innovative food technologies.

With pioneering spirit, quality and a high degree of specialist competence the Fuchs Group shapes the world of good taste. About 3,000 employees work for the Fuchs Group in ten countries and on four continents. At our headquarters in Dissen am Teutoburger Wald in the Osnabrück district, where Dieter Fuchs founded the company in 1952, we are one of the biggest employers. The holding company of the Fuchs Group is DF World of Spices GmbH. In addition to the headquarters in Dissen am Teutoburger Wald, we have German branches in Abtswind (Bavaria), Hamlar (Bavaria), Melle (Lower Saxony) and Schönbrunn (Thuringia).

Competence, quality and sustainability

The Fuchs Gruppe offers customers uncompromising quality, continuous innovations and individually customised solutions. The company has the highest demands of quality on the quality of the products: The company exerts active influence on the entire value creation chain – from the raw materials to the finished product. For example, the Fuchs Group buys exclusively unground raw goods and processes these in its own production facilities and spice mills in Germany. This allows the company to guarantee its own high standards of competence, quality and sustainability – and differentiates it from other suppliers.

Key figures

The Fuchs Group's customers include in particular the food retail (49,3 percent), the food industry (44,7 percent) and food service (6 percent).

The Fuchs Group pursues a consistent strategy of internationalisation, which ensures steady growth in all foreign markets. With the acquisition of Bart Ingredients, England's second biggest manufacturer for herbs and spices, the Fuchs Group significantly expanded its position on the English market. In 2014, the Fuchs Group entered the Austrian and Italian markets. The Fuchs Group's most important markets measured in terms of turnover are Germany (58 percent), the USA (17 percent) and France (8 percent) and Brasilia (5 percent).
